

An opportunity to gain practical experience, make a difference &
boost your employability

The project

You will be taking part on a multi-disciplinary project as part of qLegal and SKETCH, for which you and your team will produce a creative guide for legal Terms & Conditions that will make social enterprises and charities smile, not frown!

Time commitment: 1 Nov – 13 Mar, ~ 1.5 hours per week

What's in it for you?

- ✓ You will be fully trained on Design Thinking
- ✓ You will meet with the client
- ✓ You will apply your subject knowledge to a real-life problem
- ✓ You will use your research and communication skills
- ✓ You will produce and pitch your solution
- ✓ You will learn more about yourself while helping others
- ✓ HEAR transcript recognition
- ✓ Prizes and publicity are on offer!

How to apply?

CV and a short statement (up to 250 words) on why you would like to take part & what you would bring to the team

” What students say
“ The teamworking, especially interdisciplinary, took us to a whole other level of coordination and communication.

I have to emphasise, this was a really cool project.
